EGGS ARE RAISED TO $6.50 A CASE

Wheat Is Expected to Be Down to 65 Cents a Bushel This Fall-Oats Are Scarce.

Once again eggs took a jump and the dealers are in expectation of raising the retail price. Such a scarcity at this time of the year is unprecedented and the merchants cannot understand it. price now is $6.50 a case, and anyone who had any could make a fair amount of money by asking $7.

Twenty-five cents a dozen retail was the price asked and the supply is on the ncrease. Tomatocs are also cheaper, the wholesale figure having been cut to 31/2 cents a pound.

kept up later than was expected those who have seen the extent of this year's crop say that it will be very cheap when once the harvest is in full swing. Sixtyfive conts a bushel is the figure to which it will be lowered and delivered in Salt Lake 75 cents will be asked. According to some reports wheat and other grain, too, will be twice as plentiful this year as it was in 1962. At present the market is feeling the scarcity of oats, and some dealers are asking $1.50 a. cwt.

otas and Minnesota. It was asserted and little hope was entertained for even a moderate yield. Much short wheat having meanwhile been sold, a guiden demand resulted that roused the market into intense activity.

With the increased demand came a dearth of offerings and in consequence prices rose rapidly. The early decline was entirely overcome and the big additional advance followed rapidly, the market reaching the highest point so far touched by the September delivery, that option selling at $7\20078, a gain of 3\200786 from the low figure of the day. Trading continued active the remainder of the session, the market closing practically at the top, with September at $7\20086.

Clearances of wheat and flour were equal to 72.400 bushels. Primary receipts. $88,000 bushels, compared with $5,000 bushels a year ago. Minneapolls, Dulluth and Chleago reported receipts of 225 cars against 206 last week and 29 a year ago. Lower cables, good weather and favorable crop advices brought out heavy selling of corn early in the session.
